Dear Doctors and Staff,

Thank you for your continued community support by rendering your professional veterinarian services to animals and their families whenever a disaster has occurred that involved an injured pet. Yesterday, you again came to the aid of the Novi Fire Department by graciously providing mortuary services for the family dogs that were unable to escape the fire that consumed the family home.

We appreciate all that you've done to help the victims of events such as yesterday's house fire. It is a tremendous comfort to know you are there to assist whenever there is a need. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Jeffery R. Johnson
Director of EMS / Fire Operations
